

“ME, MYSELF, AND I - CAN’T GET ALONG”

(WOMEN VERSION)

By Terry Stanley

Synopsis

Mrs. Anderson (I) desperately tries to live holy but struggles with her inner temptations; Me and Myself. If she can just stop these sinful tempters from influencing her, then she can live a life pleasing to God. Therefore, she goes to court to get a restraining order against Me and Myself.

Scripture

1 Corinthians 10:13

Ministry Lesson:

As Christians, we are tempted daily to sin. It would be great if we could remove all temptation from our life, unfortunately, that’s not possible. However, God has promised to help us overcome every temptation we face.

Ministry Focus:

Sanctification

Genre: Comedy

Cast

- Judge (Male or Female, age 40+)
- Attorney (Male or Female, age 25+)
- Mrs. Anderson (Female, age 30+)
- Baliff (Adult male)

Costumes:

- Judge (Black robe)
- Attorney (Business wear)
- Mrs. Anderson (Business casual)
- Baliff (Law enforcement shirt)

Time: 15 mins.

Props:

- Plaintiff table/desk and chair
- Podium for Judge
- Attorney briefcase and case papers
- Judge court papers
- Judge gavel
- Purse and make-up accessories
- Bible for Baliff

Director’s Note: “Me” and “Myself” are spiritually different people within the same physical person. At times, I substitute the name “Aye” to refer to the person “I”, to clarify that the reference is to another person and not oneself.

The “men version” of this script focuses on different temptations and dialog from a male perspective.

ME, MYSELF, AND I - CAN'T GET ALONG

INTERIOR COURTROOM - DAY

THE ATTORNEY (CARRYING A LARGE BRIEFCASE) AND MRS. ANDERSON ENTER. MRS. ANDERSON TAKES A SEAT AT THE PLAINTIFF TABLE. THE ATTORNEY OPENS HER BRIEFCASE AND PLACES STACKS OF PAPER ON THE TABLE.

ATTORNEY

Mrs. Anderson, I need to let you know, this will not be easy.

MRS. ANDERSON

I know, but I've put this off long enough. I have to do something.

ATTORNEY

I understand.

MRS. ANDERSON

Do you think the judge will rule in my favor?

ATTORNEY

I don't know. You are making a very unusual request. (Reaches out to touch her shoulder). I promise to do my very best.

MRS. ANDERSON

Thank you.

BALIFF

The Honorable Judge [name of cast member]. All rise.

THE JUDGE ENTERS (CARRYING A FOLDER WITH PAPERS)

JUDGE TAKES HER SEAT.

BALIFF

You may be seated.

JUDGE

Good Morning Counselor.

ATTORNEY

Good Morning Your Honour.

JUDGE

(Reading) This is case number 237

Anderson vs. Anderson, correct?

ATTORNEY

Yes Your Honour.

JUDGE

Are all parties here?

ATTORNEY

Yes, Your Honour.

JUDGE

You may proceed.

ATTORNEY

(Steps forward to speak) Your Honour, my client is before the court this morning seeking a restraining order against two individuals whom, over many years and to this day, continue to harass my client, causing great emotional distress. My client seeks relief from this abuse by the issuance of a permanent restraining order preventing these individuals from ever communicating with her again.

JUDGE

Very well. Call your first witness.

ATTORNEY

I would like to call my client Mrs. Aye Anderson to the stand.

MRS. ANDERSON STANDS NEXT TO THE WITNESS CHAIR.

MRS. ANDERSON TAKES A SEAT NEXT TO THE JUDGE.

ATTORNEY

Please state your name for the record.

MRS. ANDERSON

(In a sweet delicate voice) Mrs. Aye
Anderson

ATTORNEY

And where do you live?

MRS. ANDERSON

I live at 827 Pine Street.

ATTORNEY

And who else lives there with you?

MRS. ANDERSON

Two boarders; Mee and Myself.

ATTORNEY

So, it's only the three of you?

MRS. ANDERSON

Yes; Mee, Myself, and I.

ATTORNEY

And how long have you known Mee and Myself?

MRS. ANDERSON

All my life, we practically grew up together.

ATTORNEY

So they were good friends at first.

MRS. ANDERSON

Oh Yes, we did everything together. We attended school together;

MRS. ANDERSON (cont'd)

hung out at parties...we all got married the same time. We were inseparable.

ATTORNEY

What happened?

MRS. ANDERSON

Well, as I grew older, I wanted to grow more spiritually, so I accepted Christ and joined a church. That's when things started to change.

ATTORNEY

Explain.

MRS. ANDERSON

Well, actually "I" changed. I use to do bad when I was with Mee and Myself.
So I decided to stop hanging out with them. They didn't like that.

ATTORNEY

What happened?

MRS. ANDERSON

They became angry.

ATTORNEY

Why?

MRS. ANDERSON

Well, it was Mee who first talked about going to church, then she changed her mind, but I decided to join [name of church]. When Myself found out what I did she started harassing me.

ATTORNEY

Did you harassed her in any way?

MRS. ANDERSON

Of course not...I just talked about God's loves and how Jesus died for their sins and mine. If they would just repent from their sins and give their life to Christ, they would receive God's gift of salvation.

SHE BECOMES EMOTIONAL AND TAKES OUT A TISSUE TO WIPE HER TEARS.

I just can't continue to live with the old Mee and arguing with Myself all the time. I wish they could understand.

ATTORNEY

Thank you. Your Honour, I have no more questions for this witness

JUDGE

Very well, (to Mrs. Anderson) You may step down.

AN EMOTIONAL MRS. ANDERSON STEPS DOWN AND TAKES HER SEAT.

JUDGE

(to Attorney) Please call your next witness.

ATTORNEY

I call Mrs. Mee Anderson to the stand.

MRS. ANDERSON RETURNS, BUT THIS TIME AS A DIFFERENT PERSON (VERY FLIRTATIOUS, MEN-CHASER)

BALIFF

Raise your right hand and place your left hand on the bible. Do you promised to tell the truth, so help you God?

MRS. ANDERSON

Sure. (Flirting with Baliff) You're kinda' cute.

BALIFF

Please be seated.

ATTORNEY

Please state your name for the record.

MRS. ANDERSON

Mrs. Mee Anderson.

MRS ANDERSON TAKES OUT A COMPACT MIRROR TO ADMIRE HOW SHE LOOKS AND ADJUST HER HAIR AND MAKE-UP DURING THE CONVERSATION.

ATTORNEY

And where do you live?

MRS. ANDERSON

Well, my mailing address is 827 Pine Street..(Thinking about her many boyfriends) but I like to move around, if you know what I mean.

ATTORNEY

And who else lives at Pine Street with you?

MRS. ANDERSON

Just Myself and Aye.

ATTORNEY

Now Mrs. Anderson, Aye testified the you were jealous of her because she accepted Christ. Is this true?

MRS. ANDERSON

(Shocked) I'm not jealous of her! Just look at her...and look at me (posing). If anything, she is jealous of me.

ATTORNEY

Is it true that you and the plaintiff use to be known as the "party girls"?

MRS. ANDERSON

Oh yeah...we had some good times...club hoppin' downtown, up-town...all over town. All she had to do was hang with me and men would buy us drinks all night.

ATTORNEY

But eventually she stopped hangin' out with you.

MRS. ANDERSON

(Upset) That's right, we were partners and she just crashed the party.

ATTORNEY

How did that make you feel?

MRS. ANDERSON

Like she abandoned me! Look, she can go to church and pray and act all righteous in front of those church folks on Sunday morning, but why can't we keep doing our thing? God is a forgiving God, right?

ATTORNEY

True...true (Pause) Tell me, if you forgave your children for a mistake they made, do you expect them to make the same mistake just so you can forgive them again?

MRS. ANDERSON

Of course not.

ATTORNEY

Neither does God.

MRS. ANDERSON

Well...I...I....

ATTORNEY

(Interrupts) I have no more questions for this witness.

JUDGE

Very well, (to Mrs. Anderson) You may step down.

AN EMBARRASSED MRS. ANDERSON RETURNS TO THE DEFENSE TABLE.

JUDGE

(To Attorney) Do you have any more witnesses?

ATTORNEY

Yes, I call Mrs. Myself Anderson to the stand

MRS. ANDERSON RETURNS, BUT THIS TIME AS A DIFFERENT PERSON
(HIGH-TEMPER, IMPATIENT, SELF-CENTERED)

*****
- End of Preview -

"Myself" begins her testimony of her previous relationship with "Aye". The attorney gives his/her summation and the judge gives his/her ruling. Will Aye receive a restraining order or will he have to learn to live with his temptations?
