

“LIKE A GOOD SAVIOR”

By
Terry Stanley

Synopsis

This sketch is parody of the State Farm Insurance commercial, featuring the popular jingle, “Like a Good Neighbor, State Farm Is There”. A woman is struggling to pay her bills. She just can’t seem to get ahead financially. She needs help, so she calls on the Lord, “Like a Good Savior, Jesus is There”. Immediately, Jesus shows up to help her get through her financial crisis.

Ministry Focus

Christian Fun

Genre

Comedy

Cast:

Adult Male - Jesus

Adult Female

Costume:

The woman is dressed in professional office attire

Jesus is wearing a robe

Props:

Stack of letters/mail

Time:

4 mins

LIKE A GOOD SAVIOR

THE WOMAN RETURNS HOME FROM A LONG DAY AT WORK. SHE IS CARRYING A STACK OF MAIL.

WOMAN

Whew! It's good to be home. The traffic was terrible.

SHE FLOPS DOWN IN A CHAIR AND BEGINS TO FLIP THROUGH THE MAIL.

WOMAN (CONT'D)

Oh, here's my bank statement. (Opens the letter) Oh my goodness, I have three overdraft charges this month. Now I don't have enough money for my car payment. I need some help.

SHE SINGS THE STATE FARM JINGLE.

WOMAN (CONT'D)

(Singing) "Like a Good Savior, Jesus is There"

JESUS RUNS IN.

WOMAN (CONT'D)

(Surprised) Jesus!?

JESUS

Yep, it's me.

WOMAN

Why...why are you here?

JESUS

You prayed the jingle.

WOMAN

Jingle, what jingle?

JESUS

(Singing) "Like a Good Savior, Jesus is There".

JESUS (CONT'D)

Most people believe the jingle came from the State Farm Insurance commercial, but it was originally a prayer.

WOMAN

Really?

JESUS

That's right. David sang the jingle prayer to the Lord every time he was in danger. It would have been the 151st Psalm, but David forgot to write it down.

WOMAN

(Amazed) I didn't know that.

JESUS

It's a little known biblical fact. So, what's the problem?

WOMAN

Well Lord, I don't have enough money in my bank account to pay my bills. (Hands Jesus her bank statement)

JESUS REVIEWS THE BANK STATEMENT.

*****
- End of Preview -

Jesus shares some practical, yet humorous, advice to help the woman get her finances back on track.
*****